25X1X [redacted] a revolutionary plot against the Salvadoran Government was planned for 1 September 1947. A group of liberals, working with young Army officers, is said to spearhead the plot. The group is reportedly led by Ricardo Arbizu Bosque, a young lawyer who has instigated previous liberal opposition movements. This group has been partially organized for several months and has refrained from action on at least two previous occasions when suspicion was aroused.
